McNulty To Plea Case Of Senior Citizen Housing

In an interview with Mr. Henry V. McNulty, relative to his application to the Sierra Madre Planning Commission, on a variance changing from eleven thousand square feet to three thousand square feet, a subdivision consisting of 44 lots on what is known as the Lowell Nursery property, several things were brought to light, which are believed to be of prime interest to all concerned.

As Mr. McNulty stated, the call for this variance was for a minimum square feet of 3,000, the maximum which would be 6,000, and the average lot size would be approximately 3,600 square feet.

In his request to the Planning Commission in a letter dated August 1, he made the following statements: "It is our intention to record deed restrictions on the variance and subdivision map No. 27491, which will restrict and require that occupancy per dwelling unit to not more than 3 persons over the age of 52 years (spouse of any age). That swimming pools would be prohibited, and that garages of 20 x 20 with automatic openers would be included and that the buildings would be limited to one-story construction."

Operating under the name of Huntington Construction Co., Inc., Mr. H. V. McNulty as its president is quite enthusiastic about providing Lee Shippey Writes On U.N.

The world Court of the United Nations has decreed that all member nations should pay their share of the costs of maintaining peace in the Congo, the implied alternative being that any nation which does not pay its share will lose its voting — and vetoing — rights in the United Nations. I hope that ruling is enforced, for I believe that is the only way in which we can establish the rule of law and order on earth. Russia learned its lesson when it boycotted the Supreme Council and the Council calmly went ahead as if Russia didn't exist, increasing the powers of the membership as a whole, a thing Russia could have vetoed had it not walked out. The simple fact is that the smaller the world grows the more dangerous it would be for even the greatest nation not to have an influential voice in the one organization which has already prevented several wars or kept little ones from becoming big ones and aspires to the protection of the rights of all nations, great and small, and also human rights. Russia won't dare bow out for fear it might have to get down on its knees to crawl back in.

Some of us who think we should get out of the U.N. might well ponder the question: Why do Red China and other nations not in it keep trying so persistently, in spite of rebuffs, to get in?

Now that most Americans

Aqua Fair Aug. 24-25

The Aqua Fair will be held this year at The Sierra Vista Park swimming pool, featuring a circus theme.

The fair, titled "Aqua Circus," will feature special water ballet numbers with more than twenty girls doing routines as clowns, tight rope walkers, bare back riders, and other circus spectacles seen under the big top. A ringmaster will be calling the acts as they appear to the Sierra Madre circus fans.

All the performers in the "Aqua Circus" are from the summer swimming program.

The Aqua Fair is the event that serves as a climax "to many hours of hard work in lessons and practice."

There will be demonstrations by the various ability levels of swimmers through the Life Saving classes.

Swimming races will again be held for those interested. Signs-ups for the races are now being taken at the pool during open swimming.

The races this year will be according to swimming ability rather than according to age, having racing divisions for beginners, intermediates

Skin Diving A Project For Post 376

The boys of Explorer Post 376 are looking for odd jobs. Any pool or yard work capable of being done by boys 14-17 years old is desired. Please call Barney Barnes at EL 5-0352 or Richard Dauben at EL 5-9132.

All members of the Post have taken qualifying courses for skin diving. They have passed physical requirements for skin diving and also adhere to all safety regulations. Now extra equipment is needed to expand the program. Every boy is trying to get as much equipment as possible.

Jazz Concert A Success

"A tremendous success" were the words used by Thomas Butch in describing the performance at last Sunday afternoon's Jazz Concert at Memorial Park.

Mr. Butch reports that the audience, which included teenagers as well as senior citizens, received tremendous enjoyment from the Dixieland music played. He also reports that besides the music of the Crown City Jazz Band, a fine job was done by the master of ceremonies, George Murton.

Appreciation for Murton's "outstanding ability as the master of ceremonies" for this and other concerts was expressed in a letter sent to him by Mr. Butch.

The letter said that the Parks and Recreation Commission stated that Murton's "fine handling of the M.C. duties has greatly enhanced an already successful program."

The concert was heard and enjoyed in many parts of the city by those who were unable to attend in person. A return program is hoped for.

Council To Make Decision At August 14 Meeting

Both General Tax Levy and Bond Issue On Ballot May Be Necessary

Two meetings held this week, one on Monday evening and the other Tuesday evening, to discuss the proposed Flood Control areas of the Skyland, Sunnyside-Michillinda area with Mayor Webster Vannier and City Administrator Larry Bevington, saw a representative group from each area present. Both meetings starting at 8 p.m. ended respectively in 2 hours 12 minutes and 2 hours 14 minutes with a complete agreement reached with the majority present.

Both meetings were started out with discussion of the "where's and whyfores" and only during the final half hour of each meeting were definite decisions made. Due to conditions beyond the control of Sierra Madre a "permanent" flood control plan cannot be undertaken at this time. To be permanent, it must be in complete accord with the 4-group plan and work as one project. Other facets outside of our area, are not as yet ready for the permanent solution, therefore Sierra Madre must handle their flood control problem on a temporary basis for this year. The temporary basis has been recognized by the members of the City Council and they have the available funds to proceed.

By an overwhelming vote both districts put thumbs down on any "Assessment Districts," feeling that it is a problem of the City as a whole, rather than a selected few.

A proposed Bond issue for the November Ballot was the method of payment selected by those present at the meetings, whereby the projects could be completed and payments made over a number of years. This will be put before the people in November, if the Council so decides on August 14, and must carry by two-thirds majority to become valid.

This procedure will be recommended to the Council on their meeting of August 14, if approved by them, experts will be called in to give them the advice as to the length of times the issue should be set for, and the amount of the issue, in that the lowest interest rates can be obtained.

Further recommendation to the Council will be that they are to use all available funds possible with the thought in mind of making the bond issue as low as possible.

Joseph Kramer Pioneer Passes

Services will be held Friday at 3 p.m. for Joseph A. Kramer, age 78, pioneer resident of Sierra Madre.

Mr. Kramer passed away Tuesday morning August 7. A native of Iowa, he came to Sierra Madre in 1906 and owned and operated a fruit packing plant known as the "Golden Nugget." Services will be held at the Lamb Funeral Home, Pasadena, in a private home. He lived at 149 N. Mountain Trail.

200 Visitors To Little Art Group Showing

More than two hundred visitors attended the reception of the Little Arts Group of Sierra Madre at the Royal Oaks Gallery, 1748 Royal Oaks Dr., Duarte.

This was the largest attendance of visitors the group has ever had, it was reported by Irene Delano.

Several art critics and art instructors were among the guests who expressed their interest and appreciation of the paintings.

The exhibit will continue to stay open the rest of this month.

Pasadena Club Falls

Swim Club Rack Up Another Victory

Saturday, it was reported, the Sierra Madre Aquatic Club "put on another truly great performance" by claiming a victory over the Pasadena High School Swim Club.

The determined, hard working Sierra Madrans put forth their greatest efforts to tally up a final score of 224 over PHS's 195.

It was said to be a real inspiration to watch these young people who faithfully work out each day under the direction of Coaches Rick Appleton and Bill Keith. Such performances as: Bob Nelissen swimming the 25 yd. breaststroke in 25 seconds; Annette McKee of 9-10 yr. girls class doing a 25 yd. breaststroke in 20.5 seconds; Joel Norowich entered in the 9-10 yr. boys class doing a 25 yd. butterfly in 18.2 seconds; Patsy Miller turning in a time of 45.8 seconds in the 11-12 yr. girls backstroke; Andy Hensel coming through with a 29.4 second time in the 13-14 yr. boys freestyle; and Stef Turner racking up a time of 33.9 seconds for 15-16 yr. girls freestyle — these are just a few reasons to justify a renewal of faith in today's youth. Sierra Madre has young people to be proud of.

Winners for Sierra Madre Saturday included: Girls 7-8: Tricia Myers placed third in 25 yd. backstroke; Patricia Oram came in a close second in the 25 yd. breaststroke; Mary Oram placed third in the 25 yd. freestyle, missing second place by one-tenth of a second.

Boys 7-8: Bob Nelissen took home 3 first place ribbons in the 25 yd. butterfly, 25 yd. backstroke, and 25 yd. breaststroke; B. Davidson claimed a first place in 25 yd. freestyle and a second in the 25 yd. backstroke.

Girls 9-10: Annette McKee, claiming her usual share of victories, placed first in the 25 yd. breaststroke and second in the 25 yd. butterfly and the 50 yd. freestyle; J. Barron swam a great race to place third in the 25 yd. backstroke; as did Jenny Cappelle, who placed third in the 25 yd. breaststroke.

Front of Post Office

Angle Parking Asked By C of C Board

Adequate parking for postal patrons was the main theme at the meeting of the Directors of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning at breakfast at the Headliner. Many complaints about the manner of parking at the post office were heard and discussed after which a resolution was passed to urge city officials to install angle parking on the west side of Baldwin Avenue from where it is now in force south past the post office with a green curb restricted time limit directly in front of the post office.

"It was the general feeling of the directors," said President John H. Curtis, in announcing the board action, "that this action, if carried out by the city, will largely eliminate a very difficult parking problem for post office patrons who now labor through the difficulty of trying to parallel park or angle park on the rough dirt ramp with the hazard of then backing into Baldwin Ave. The Chamber has had many complaints

"The Golden Crown"

Art Hassen To Exhibit At Lopez Gallery Sept. 7-29

"The Golden Crown" is the title of the Art Hassen exhibit to be put on September 7-29 at the Lopez Gallery at 47 E. Montecito in Sierra Madre, it was announced by Ramon Lopez.

The reception for Mr. Hassen will be September 7 at 8 p.m. In addition to exhibiting his paintings that night, Mr. Hassen, also a musician, will perform Bach Sonata on the flute.

Lopez says Hassen "is a person to be known and loved by all the world."

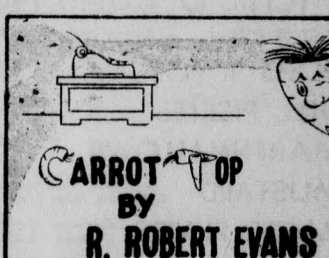

A magazine in Paris has said Hassen "represents the universe of dream... the lightest concept of light, which is genius."

Hassen, who is considered "a leading painter of the day," has had many of his works exhibited in top museums in both America and Europe and has been the recipient of numerous prizes.

He has received recognition for his work from First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy,

Overheard a conversation the other day at the Sierra Madre Coffee Shop, involving Mary and a complaining customer. Seems that the customer was complaining that her sausages had meat at one end but bread crumbs at the other. Seems confused until Diane, she's the boss when her husband is not around, chimed in with the following remark: "In these times of rising costs nobody can make both ends meet."

Thinking seriously about Diane's remark it is truly a mystery to me, with the cost of living going up and up, how some of us can afford it. One of these days I am going to eliminate this item from my budget, but not too soon I hope.

Seems that their might be some controversial material afloat regarding the method by which the proposed flood control construction will be paid for, by whom and how much.

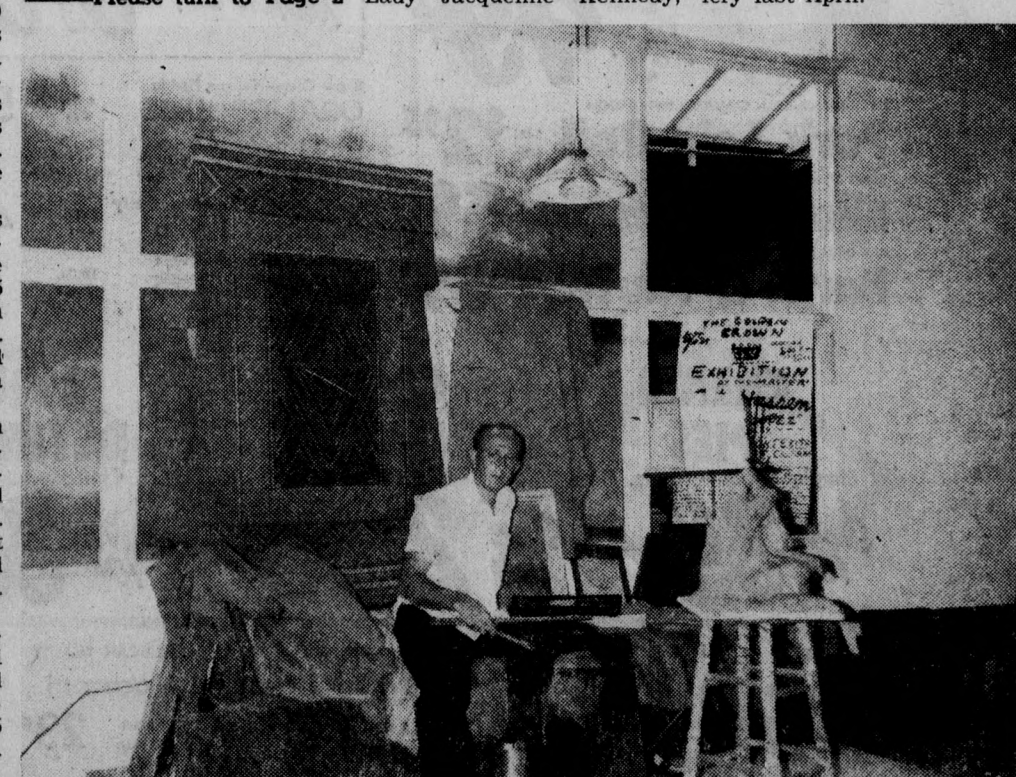

How we need each other in this great battle of survival, is very well set forth in the following yarn — should you not get it the first time, read it again — it really has a message.

When the earth began to put forth plants, trees and gardens. Forests bloomed throughout the land. But the trees were greatly afraid of the iron in the earth. "The time will come," they said to each other, "when from the iron, man will fashion axes and will chop us down and make an end of us."

The iron heard the trees muttering to each other and said, "How silly you are to fear me, when you have the preventive in your powers. If you live together in peace, how can I harm you? Where will I get the wood for the handle of the axe?" Need there be more said?

In asking a recent visitor to Washington, D.C. to describe the Capitol City, he did so in three words: "Protocol, Alcohol and Geritol." What a world!

Yes, sirree, Tom Butch

Boys 11-12: Chris Cholewiak claimed his usual share of ribbons, placing 1st in the 50 yd. butterfly, 50 yd. backstroke and 50 yd. freestyle; Greg Gibson was Girls 13-14: Laurene Davidson, a great swimmer, placed first in the 50 yd. butterfly, 50 yd. backstroke, and the 50 yd. freestyle; J. Purcell swam two great races to place third in the 50 yd. backstroke and the 50 yd. freestyle; as did C. Koenig, placing third in the 50 yd. backstroke.

Boys 15-16: Bruce Dixon took away second place ribbons in the 50 yd. butterfly and the 100 yd. freestyle; Roger Keith did a great job of winning the 50 yd. backstroke and placing 3rd in the 50 yd. butterfly; Abbe Keith swam beautifully to place 2nd in the 50 yd. backstroke and the 50 yd. freestyle.

Saturday, August 11, the club will be host to San Gabriel in a return meet at Sierra Madre Pool, at 9:30. This will be the last home meet.

"Dynamic," "Beautiful," and "Fantastic" were words uttered by artists, photographers, and many others attending the opening of the Earl Scott Exhibition last night at the Lopez Gallery, 47 E. Monecito in Sierra Madre.

Ramon Lopez, owner of the gallery, said that he is very pleased with "the way the exhibition was so well received" and added that "its success was important to the progress of creative photography."

Along with the photography, guests heard, at the beginning of the exhibition, Art Hassen playing the flute, which also received favorable comments.

Guests included people from as far as North Hollywood, Anaheim, and even as far as Indianapolis, Indiana.

Scott's works will be exhibited at the Lopez Gallery until August 29.

The phone rang the other night and the query on the other end was, "Why don't you and Ernie and the four kids go camping with us down on the beach in Mexico?"

Now camping is a sport that I have always admired others for doing, but carefully avoided myself. Our family equipment consists of one sleeping roll, a coffee pot and a can opener. Hardly adequate supplies for a lively family of six.

Umpteen calls later and six or eight trips to Sears and various friends with equipment, and I had finally located a stove, sleeping rolls, air mattresses, ice chests, a tent, lanterns, and a wonderful camper truck.

"Nothing to it," I said, with the right connections anyone can be a camper. Sure they can!"

Off we went into the wilds of Mexico to dry camp on the beach. (For you novices, dry camping means hauling all of your own fresh water.)

Well, I'll have to admit we had fun, thanks to some able-bodied men who knew how to put up a tent even if you forget the stakes. It was like a home away from home. Seven families from this immediate neighborhood were there with various types of trailers and tents. There were community feasts of barbecued fresh lobsters. We danced under a parachute canopy gaily lighted with tiki torches and paper lanterns to the music of an old wind-up phonograph and dozens of old 78 records. The children camped with campfires near the water, fished and rode horses. Who cares if none of us got much sleep when you are rugged outdoor people? We all had a wonderful time and are ready to go back again— not soon, but again.

The hillites in the group were Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Aikman Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goldworthy, Dr. and Mrs. Clete Dorsey, as well as ourselves, and all of the families. Those off the hill were Mr. and Mrs. Teber, Whitehead, Dr. and Mrs. Doug Batton, and Dr. and Mrs. John Howard, and all of their respective children.

We are soon going to have to rename the Villa area to poolside mansions, there are so many pools going in. Still struggling to get finished before hot weather strikes are the Carl Mounteers. They have a magnificent location for their overlooking the golf course. The Charles Schrams of Mesita Rd. have been enjoying their friends July 4th with their friends and their children's friends. The Arturo Gutierrez family on Fairpoint expect that theirs will be finished in the next three weeks. The William Baughs had to give up the idea of their pool for this year and compact their hillside instead.

The residents on Wynn Rd. are getting a big kick out of seeing Gene Koen buzzing back and forth in his little "red ant," the Porsche he bought on their recent tour through Europe. By the bye, the Kochs entertained two young men

Two Dutch Indonesians Repeat Wedding Vows Friday, Aug. 3

The Sierra Madre Congregational church was the setting for the wedding of two young Dutch Indonesians, Matilda Boon and Robert Coumans, Friday, August 3, before 150 guests, with Rev. George Lindsay officiating.

This couple fell in love after their families were both sponsored here from Holland by the Sierra Madre Congregational church.

The bride, who carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and roses, wore a floor length wedding gown with a cathedral train. The fitted bodice was of white lace and the skirt was silk organza over satin with appliques of lace. Her net veil was attached to a satin crown with a tear drop pearl hanging in the center of her forehead.

Her maid of honor was Kathy Schwartz and her bridesmaids were Val Schweitzer and Mary Lou Hendricks. They wore short, elbow length sleeve pink dresses with lace bodices and silk organza skirts and carried pink and rose carnation bouquets.

The best man was Robert Boon and the ushers were Willie Coumans and Edgar Bentken.

A special guest attending was Mrs. Margaret Schumann of Basel, Switzerland. The newlyweds were honored with a reception in the church following the ceremony. Also, as is the Indonesian custom, the grandparents and relatives in Bandung, Indonesia, were celebrating with an open house on the same day.

The couple are honeymooning in San Francisco before returning to Sierra Madre to make their home.

Wilson-Gottardi Wedding Solemnized June 23 at St. Mark's Church

Susan Ireland Wilson of Pasadena and formerly of Sierra Madre and Anton Gottardi of Los Angeles wed June 23 at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Altadena, it was announced last week by the bride.

Matron of Honor was Mrs. William Burnett, a "lifelong friend of the bride" from Long Beach. Bridesmaids were Miss Orlene Gottardi, sister of the bridegroom, from Los Angeles; Mrs. Patrick Powers, a friend, from Arcadia, and Miss Elsie Garlatz, a friend from Pasadena.

Best man was Mr. Gene Porter, a "close friend," from Inglewood, and ushers were Mr. Charles Finn from Temple City, Mr. Terrance Moore from Los Angeles, Mr. Ellis Childress from Alhambra and Mr. Merle Stonebraker from Monrovia.

Acolytes were the nephews of the bride, Richard Mark Fisher and Robert Terrance Fisher, both of Pasadena, and Richard Scurr, a "close friend of the family," also of Pasadena. The boys lit the altar and aisle candles and assisted the priest with the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by Robert L. Fisher, her brother-in-law, of Pasadena.

Bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Orland F. Gottardi of 4106 Barryknoll Dr., in Los Angeles.

Bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Barton O. Wilson, both of whom are deceased. Performing the ceremony was Rev. Robert Cornelison, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church.

Music was "I Love Thee" and "O, Perfect Love."

The reception was held in the Markham House, which was decorated by yellow and white flowers, on the church grounds.

The bride and groom spent their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, Reno and Las Vegas.

They now reside at 144 South Ave., Los Angeles 55 (Highland Park).

Three hundred guests attended the wedding. The bride wore a gown of peau de soi and imported Chantilly lace, fashioned with a scoop escarp neck-line and long pointed sleeves. A lace midriff made a long torso pointed waist-line which held a full swirling pleated skirt, with cut-away front edge in lace, and the cathedral length train was highlighted with pearl smocking. Her pillbox headpiece, which was created for her by a long-time family friend, was holidly beaded with pearls and crystals and held a multi-tiered waist-length scalloped French silk illusion veil.

With her gown, she had a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a white prayer book with cattleya orchids and stephanotis. The prayer book was a gift from the bride's sister.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in a rose beige brocade sheath with a matching jacket and wore a pink hat. She wore a corsage of soft pink roses.

The matron of honor and the bridesmaids were gowned in white silk organza sheath dresses with sheer yokes and sabrina necklines and had cap sleeves with a full pleated, detachable organza over-skirt. Open pillbox hats held circle scalloped veils, similar to that of the bride. The bridesmaids carried white baskets of pale yellow roses, tied with yellow ribbon, and the maid of honor carried a presentation bouquet of yellow roses.

The bride's sister (in place of the mother) was gowned in a beautiful soft aqua sheath dress with a matching sheer duster coat, highlighted with small organza roses. She wore a pillbox hat to match and a corsage of white phalopsis orchids.

The bridegroom's mother was gowned in a rose beige brocade sheath with a matching jacket and wore a pink hat. She wore a corsage of soft pink roses.

APOLOGY

This is an apology to the woman whose story about several cats she had reportedly owned appeared in the last issue of the News.

It was mistakenly assumed that she was living with her husband and her cats giving equal time to each as alternate companions. Later it was reported that she was living in both houses only to take care of matters pertaining to moving.

It also should be said that the matter of the animals has been taken care of.

—Stephan Attkisson

The dipper, or water ouzel, a small bird living high in the mountains, is reported to trot along under water searching for insects on stream beds and to come up only occasionally for air.

Assessment

Since the entire program is on a speculative basis as to costs, need, passing, cooperation from outside facets, temporary work and many other points, it is very evident that it will be the decision of the Council to also pass a general tax levy for the year 1962-63 in the amount of 20 cents per $100 valuation. Should the bond issue pass in November, this money would be used to alleviate the funds used, or dedicated, and the general tax levy for flood control would be eliminated for the next years. Should the bond issue fail, it is very evident that the general tax levy will continue for the number of years required to pay the indebtedness created by the necessary flood control work.

ORCHID HOBBYISTS

The San Gabriel Valley Orchid Hobbyists will hold their monthly meeting Thursday, August 16 at 8 p.m. at the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum, 301 N. Baldwin, Arcadia. Poets To Organize In Near Future

In the very near future a meeting will be held in Sierra Madre for the purpose of organizing a Wistaria Chapter of the Chaparral Poets of California.

Watch your local paper or scan the notices on board in your library or Woman's Club for the time, place and date.

Returns After Three Weeks Naval Duty

Draper W. Phillips, of 528 San Gabriel Ave., in Sierra Madre, has returned from three weeks naval duty in London, England with the U.S. Naval Forces in Europe.

Mr. Draper reports that he was "attached to the legal staff in connection with international law problems" and dealt "particularly with the status of Forces agreements with other countries."

Two Buses Take 109 Children To Production

Last Wednesday 109 Sierra Madre children attended the afternoon performance of "Alice in Wonderland" at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium. "Alice" is one of seven large productions sponsored by the Pasadena Department of Recreation.

Bus transportation was arranged and paid for by the Sierra Madre PTA.

Release slips were sent home by each school and it was anticipated that approximately 60 children who are regularly enrolled in the summer recreation program would be participating in the outing. By departure time on Wednesday the number had increased to 109 and a second bus was pressed into service.

The mothers who chaperoned the group were a little weary, but the children were all looking forward to December and the next production which will be "The Magic Nutcracker."

Mr. Draper is a commander in the Naval Reserve.

Chest Board

The well known, popular Ralph of Ralph's Shoe Store has worked for the Chest in former years as business contact during the drives. Also helping with the forthcoming drive are two former Chest directors who are serving as special campaign assistants — Roy Lindberg, past president of the board, and Douglas Delahouke, associate of Harry Lange and membership chairman of the Chamber of Commerce.

Doug will be captain of the business section which will be contacted this year in August by a pre-campaign letter so the business men need not take time from their busy schedules to talk with a Chest solicitor and, if they live in Sierra Madre, there will be no solicitation at the home address if it is included in the reply. This will be an advantage to the volunteer solicitors also as the many new residents will increase the number of calls to be made and every mailed contribution helps.

A.I.D. and other at work donors can help too by advising the Chest that they give at work and remembering to designate that these funds be returned to Sierra Madre.

Alpha Xi Delta To Sponsor Scholarship

The Junior Alumnae group of Alpha Xi Delta has set up a $100 scholarship to be awarded to the outstanding Freshman woman on the UCLA campus each year. To raise funds for these scholarships they have sponsored a drive this summer, selling raffle tickets. The drawing will be held on Saturday evening, August 11, during a party given at the home of Miss Judy Tange-mam, in Pasadena.

In addition to the scholarship, this young alumnae group has worked closely with the Neighborhood Youth Association, helping to support it both financially and assisting with various projects to improve the work of the association. This organization is dedicated to aiding youths, who are headed toward delinquency, by giving them a new way of life and thus helping them to become respected and worthwhile citizens.

Local girls attending the party on Saturday evening are: Marcy Clements, Carolyn Jetton, Joan Ignatius, Betty Mason, Marge Tomalunas.

decorations for Sierra Madre. The new decorations would take advantage of the new and beautiful street lighting poles, use of the new poles which is permitted by the Edison Company, so long as their general rules of safety and beautification are observed.

The new and beautiful Sierra Madre map which will shortly be printed was described by Ed Rambeau, committee chairman, who is directing the project. The map will be produced in the very near future. It is sponsored by local merchants.

SICK LIST

Joseph Delgatto has been on the sick list for the past six weeks, is now improving and will be back on the job within a month.

WORK COMPLETED

Three weeks of modernizing the front of Jim Hall's service station ended last week.

Work done included putting in a 15 foot canopy which extended over the driveway, putting in another pump, and doing some painting.

Mr. Hall's service station is at 50 S. Baldwin Ave. in Sierra Madre.

Tennis Doubles Tournament During Sept.

Mr. Green said food will be served at this event.

A Helping Hand In Need

Organization Helps the Suffering and Bedridden

By STEPHEN ATKISSON

Although bedridden and perhaps suffering, many patients when entering the Sierra Madre Hospital smile within themselves as each is greeted by a pink friendly folder with blue letters saying, "Hello! Welcome to Sierra Madre Community Hospital."

When it is opened, they can read about a volunteer organization who say that they "will be happy to run errands, write letters, shop for items you may have forgotten to bring and care for flowers."

That volunteer organization, who had the folders printed, is a group of people called The Auxiliary of Sierra Madre Hospital.

It is an organization that began only last October with just 70 members and now has 150 members, giving of their time to help the hospital.

The members help with patient care, telephoning, typing, sewing and receptionist work.

Later they plan to have gift carts and, with the help of the Friends of the Sierra Madre Library, they plan to set up some type of library service.

As stated in their by-laws, the purpose of the group is to "promote and advance the welfare of the Sierra Madre Community Hospital, a non-profit organization, by helping the hospital provide more and better patient care; by giving service to the hospital, its patients and the community; and by fund raising in a manner satisfactory to the Hospital Governing Board and in harmony with community planning."

The Auxiliary officially became organized a while after the Sierra Madre Hospital was converted from a private hospital to a community hospital.

Operating on a non-profit basis, it needed the help of volunteer workers to cut down on its costs.

With the Auxiliary, a load was taken off the nursing staff, which became free from many extra duties, as well as making the patient's stay at the hospital a little more pleasant.

Besides this, they have, through fund raising, provided the hospital with some new air conditioners.

To join the Auxiliary as an active volunteer, one must buy her own uniform, which costs about $10, in addition to paying dues.

Also, an active volunteer must abide by the following regulations:

1. Be in good health (some volunteer work requires that the volunteer have X-ray and laboratory tests).
2. Have respect for hospital ethics, by considering everything which concerns the hospital, or patients, confidential and never to be discussed on the outside.
3. Have loyalty to the hospital and personnel.
4. Have neat appearance and cleanliness.
5. Wear volunteer uniform while performing services.
6. Have patience and consideration, as well as a businesslike attitude.
7. Have dependability in accepting assignments.

The Auxiliary has four general meetings a year and a monthly meeting the first Thursday of each month.

Highway Users Tax Up For July

The July split of highway users taxes among the state, cities and counties amounted to $30,681,821, State Controller Alan Cranston reported today.

Los Angeles County's share was $2½ million, Cranston said.

The month's total distribution was 3.7 per cent more than for the same month of 1961.

It was comprised of $28,296,925 from the gasoline tax, $1,905,245 from the diesel fuel tax, $478,988, by transfer from the Motor Vehicle Transportation Tax Fund, and the balance from miscellaneous sources.

Sabin Oral Sundays Announced

Full support of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors has been given the Sabin Oral Sundays (SOS) campaign to immunize all residents of Southern California against polio.

The board proclaimed Sunday, Oct. 21, as SOS day in the county and urged all residents to attend clinics on that day and at subsequent inoculations Oct. 28, Dec. 2-9 and Jan. 20-27.

The SOS program is a wonderful opportunity for ending polio once and for all in Southern California. This terrible disease has brought tragedy and suffering to thousands of families here. No one should miss the chance to help stamp out polio forever.

It is administered by mouth. No needle is used. Drops are given on a cube of sugar or in a fluid. There are no aftereffects. The vaccine gives polio immunity to the individual, and destroys latent virus in the system which makes some persons carriers of the disease.

A minimum donation will be asked of 25 cents for each dosage administered, but no one will be refused the immunization. In fact, a special effort will be made to reach people who might not otherwise receive the vaccine.

Project SOS is being coordinated in Los Angeles County with similar programs in Orange, San Diego, Riverside, Imperial and Ventura Counties. The goal is the inoculation of 9,000,000 persons.

The most gala kind of party is surely the Bon Voyage aboard ship.

I haven't heard if there were any guests who succumbed to the spirit of the moment and became stowaways when the luxurious Matsonia sailed for Hawaii last Saturday. However, I can list the lucky Ranchers who booked passage. Sally and Kenneth Boyce and daughters — Christine, 14 and Bonnie, 17. The trip is the Boyce's birthday gift to their daughters. Sally's mother will hold the fort at home with the two younger children. "Their time will come," says Sally.

Also aboard are Gail and Warren Clements and 12 year old Hank. Plus Gail's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Barry from Ogden, Utah.

Meanwhile, Kay and Allen Pulsifer plus Kay's sister and brother-in-law, the Ford Whipples of Port Huron, Michigan, are flying over in time to greet their Ranch friends with the traditional leis when the Matsonia docks!

Returning to the scene of the bon voyage — both the Clements and Boyce families entertained friends aboard ship. In fact, the Boyce daughters had a celebration all their own. Guests champagne toasting the Boyces were Messrs. and Mmes. Gordon Jenkins, Roy Klotz, Joe Trankla, John O'Donnell, Jack Roth, Thomas Walsch, Mac Hanson, Robert McKnight, Frank Robinson, James Knight, Edward Bittlesome, George Talle, John Burke Hugh Cressman, Jack Parrish, Harry Hill, Walter Anderson, E. B. Pollard, Jack Roe, Ken Riley, Ben Freese, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Stansbury.

The executive committee of the Upper Hastings Ranch Property Owners Association are working overtime, as they usually do at this time of year. Plans currently under discussion include the upcoming "Fall Clean-Up" campaign in preparation for the annual Holiday Decorations Contest; and plans for a permanent "welcoming committee" to establish a friendly liaison with new families moving into the Ranch.

The many gatherings throughout the Sierra-Hastings area honoring Eleanor and Les Barkley are proof-positive they'll be deeply missed when they move to Seattle next week. The C. R. Millers of Mayfair Dr. began the cycle with their farewell party to the Barkleys two weeks ago. Next came Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Schroder's dinner party. Louise and Chuck Day will do likewise at their Shadow Grove home tomorrow evening. And on Saturday evening Mr. Hearn Simpson, West Coast Regional Manager of DuPont, has invited all the DuPont "gang" to honor the Barkleys at his Palos Verdes home. This tears repeating in case you missed my earlier story — Les has been promoted to District Manager of the Petroleum Chemical Division of DuPont. Skip, eldest of the Barkley's three sons will attend the University of Washington.

Marion Menne coordinated arrangements for a delightful luncheon honoring Eleanor in the Huntington's Ship Room last week. Eleanor's Sierra Madre neighbors gave her an absolutely elegant shell shaped Sheffield silver seafood dish. (Sounds just right for the new home she contemplates on Mercer Island.) Luncheon guests were Betty Blakely, June Fleming, Maureen Bell, Ruth Englent, Jean Nash Marion Osborn, Lois Ramoer, Bea Turner, Virginia Treder, Lib Caswell, Grace Van Reed, and Phyllis Jones. Vacations forced the following gals to miss the luncheon but not the gift — they include Florence Fisher, Kay Rule, Jody Coulson, Betty Foxton, Connie Tahl, Rosemary Deal and Agnes Page.

Carol and Frank Kuchenski and their three young sons will be moving into the Barkley's Colony Dr. home. Mr. Kuchenski is a department manager with Sears.

Betty and Ross Blakely have sold their home on Holdman and will move to Pasadena temporarily. When moving chores are over, they plan to take their three daughters to the Fair and a trip through scenic Canada.

Jeanne (Mrs. Norman) Seymour gave a lovely bridge-luncheon last week. Guests were Louise Vincent, Mary Natzel (I finally got it straight — the Natzels moved to Fairmeade, selling their Canfield house to the Seymours), Katherine Allen, Joanne Brill, Pat McClinton, Mary Pat Paddock, Jane Morris, Frieda Faust, Chris Merriam, Harriet Kraushaar (who makes the famous marinade), Dora Hoag, and Sue Lambert.

Five deeply tanned young misses have returned from a week at Balboa Island — Janet Brill, Kathy Allen, Penny Harwood, Kathy Kinky, and Janet Harness. Mesdames Brill and Allen chaperoned.

What I don't know about bridge playing would fill a book — however, Ethel Schwartz of Sierra Madre has kindly filled me in on the local picture. Seems St. Rita's has an American Contract Bridge League franchise and issues master points. Florence Peterson is the director. Duplicate players are welcome to join the first Wednesday of each month — 10 a.m. at St. Rita's Hall, 322 N. Baldwin. Winners last week were first Viola Guardia and Ethel Schwartz; second Doreen Horn and Rita Polanshuk; third Jackie Hazelhurst and Gina Velasquez.

Sorry news from Laguna Beach concerning two popular Ranchers. Horace Ray was riding a wave when he struck John Morris in the back. Horace ended up with a chipped bone in his neck and is spending the balance of his vacation in the Southern Coast Community Hospital at South Laguna Beach. Eileen Ray and the children are nearby at their beach house at 290 Pearl St. in Laguna Beach.

Letters to the Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

I wish to protest the recent column by your so-called Sierra-Hastings News correspondent, Joyce Wenger. We have no need in this community for such dirty and utterly despicable tactics as those voiced by Mrs. Wenger in her column of August second.

I can just picture her sitting at her typewriter wearing her white sheet and gloating over the possibility of stirring up some trouble in an area in which she does not even live.

This whole thing does not really warrant an answer, except that I have had all of this kind of mis-information, malicious, bias and downright devilry that I can stomach. I had hoped that a new owner of the News would see an end to those kind of things. Apparently you are planning to continue a policy of allowing "society" reporters to flaunt their warped and twisted opinions in your newspaper.

I assure you that if this paper appears at my door again with Joyce Wenger's column in it, I will throw it back on your doorstep and if necessary take further action to keep such garbage

WATCH OUT the "inspector" is here!

Charlie Eaton owns Eaton's Restaurant. This arrangement gives him the unquestioned right to come into the kitchen whenever he chooses. He chooses quite often. But this is no idle poking around. In his time (more than 30 years) Mr. Eaton has cooked up a storm in many a kitchen when he had to. He knows quality. He insists on it. That's why at Eaton's you get good food . . . morning, noon and night!

Sierra Madre is now a part of the county health department which has headquarters in Monrovia, according to Dr. Gilbert S. Bovard, who has received notice that the county has now formally taken over the work which he had been doing as city health officer. The change in policy came about as the result of investigations made by Dr. Bovard a few months ago when he took over the health department temporarily, and recommendations made by him to the city trustees.

The ancient ideas of jazz included more complicated instruments than any "trapman" today can produce, according to Frank E. Woods of Associated Pictures who supervised the filming of "Richard the Lion Hearted," a screen adaptation of Sir Walter Scott's "The Talisman." It comes to the Wistaria Theatre on Saturday for one day only, with Wallace Beery as the star.

While other cities are claiming the distinction in daily papers for the size of peaches grown on their trees, it is learned that Sierra Madre can compete with the best of them. The first of this week C. L. Davis brought a peach to the News which measured twelve inches in circumference and weighed fourteen ounces . . . There were two dozen peaches on the (same) tree this year, the rest being slightly smaller.

No more need shoppers on Kersting Court thread their ways among handle bars of prone bicycles. The City Council has installed a bicycle rack in front of the News office to accommodate the wheels of the younger generation.

Sierra Madre was without electric power for more than an hour Saturday afternoon when a run-away automobile dashing down the mountainside in Santa Anita avenue knocked over a fire plug, then a pole carrying the city's power lines.

The city, county and school tax rates soon to be fixed by the city council and county board of supervisors will be levied against an assessed valuation of $2,677,525.

A threat of a new scenic highway through the north side of Sierra Madre which would necessitate the condemnation of dozens of homes was removed this week by the board of supervisors.

An open meeting to discuss methods of promoting a new swimming pool has been scheduled for the evening of Sept. 12.

Opposing the City's official stand, the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors Monday night adopted a resolution mending the substitution of passenger buses and auto truck service for the existing Pacific Electric rail lines in Sierra Madre.

With building funds available and the deed to its property now recorded, the Sierra Madre Public Library sees no further obstacles ahead in its proposed building program. Remaining to be done is the formality of turning the deed to the property over to the City, according to Webster Vannier, chairman of the library board of trustees.

Representatives of a number of Sierra Madre organizations and civic groups met last week with the Swimming Pool Association and John C. Mead, and received answers to some questions uppermost in the minds of pool supporters.

They learned that a wading pool is also being considered, that volunteer labor would be used when feasible if the pool construction becomes an actuality, that the pool would be self-sustaining and that at the present time a proposed bond issue, if public opinion favors a bond election, will supply the total funds needed.

Freedom At Any Price

by Henry V. Witty

It is with a feeling of profound sorrow and the realization of a great loss that "Freedom At Any Price" reports the passing of a great American, a man who belonged to that rare breed currently ridiculed as "super-patriots." Matt Cvetie, former counterspy for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, is dead.

For nine long years, Matt Cvetie led a life of loneliness and heartbreak, an almost intolerable existence in which at any moment he might have to face brutal torture or sudden death. He could tell no one that he was working for the F.B.I. He was paid little for his efforts. His friends deserted him. He deeply hurt his beloved family — his father and mother, his wife, and his twin sons — who came to despise him for his Communist activities.

In his book, "The Big Decision," in which he tells the story of his life as a counterspy, Cvetie recalls the tragic day on which is ten-year old son, "Dick," came home crying, trying to hide a black eye. His mother got the story out of him and later, wrathfully and indignantly, related it to me. One of the kids at school had called me a Red — something, no doubt, he had heard his parents mention at home.

"Dick," resenting the remark, had done what any boy would have done under the circumstances. He put up a fight in my defense. When I talked to him after I got home, he broke down and cried. Sick at heart, I held him close. He didn't care about the black eye — it was his feelings that were hurt. I could read it in his eyes, those young and trusting eyes that seemed to implore me to justify his stand in my behalf.

"Dad," he pleaded, "say it isn't true. You're not a Communist like he said, are you?"

"This was no time for a father to let a son down, but giving Dick the answer he wanted was beyond my control. All I could say was: 'Someday, Dick, you'll understand.'"

"He looked at me, bewildered. You're not a Communist like he said, are you?" he asked again.

"For two cents, right then and there, I would have chucked the F.B.I. job out the window. Seeing Dick hurt made me hate myself. Without a word, I turned my back on him and walked out of the room. His sobs rang in my ears. As I got my hat and coat, my wife confronted me. Her eyes blazing, she reproached me bitterly:

"You ought to be proud of yourself. Now get out of here and don't bother to come back."

"That was the breakup. We separated — a separation that ended in divorce."

What made this man sacrifice all he held dear for a job in which he would receive nothing but unhappiness in return? The answer is simple: Matt Cvetie was an American.

As he states in his book, "Uppermost in my mind was

By Den Murray

Sweating, breath-short from my climb into the mountains back of town, I found my "Socrates of the Frags" grinding a hoe in the shade of his cave entrance. "For once," he grumbled, motioning me to a flat boulder and occupying another, "I'm almost glad to see you." I guessed, "Because you're curious about our new editor-publisher-owner, Mr. Carrot Top Evans." The shaggy, bearded prophet's head atop the bone assembly upholstered in leather and masked solely in faded, droopy shorts, nodded. "Orange-haired, probably. And having bought our local sheet, either a Republican or fool." "Correct on the first 2 at least. No comment on the 3rd since he's running my column." At this moment "Blackie" the crow, one of the Hermit's many friends, dived from a pine to beak a cutworm off the tomatoes. "I trust editor Carrot Top will soon be swooping on our crawling governor Pat Brown like Blackie just now swooped on that crawling parasite."

My bows arched like singed caterpillars. "But —" "Crawl" is what I said! Didn't he go crawling around in timorous, vascillating circles disgracing California in the Chessman case? Didn't he go crawling back to the Kennedy clan crying futilely for Federal aid to halt the flood of marijuana that's pouring over the California border to ruin American youth? The other states out to sue us! One marijuana cigarette costs our kids 50 cents and often their characters. Next they're on deadly heroin financing a fifty dollar a day habit with prostitution and armed robbery!"

"But Pat Brown tried," I protested. "And the President did persuade Mexico to go after its marijuana growers. Admittedly, the vile stuff is still flooding in, but if JFK presses Mexico too hard — what happens to his Alliance For Progress?"

"What's happening to it anyway?" he roared. "Last I heard and read, the beneficiaries were showing their gratitude by overturning the government favorable to it. If Uncle Sam has to buy the privilege of helping Latin America with billions at the additional price of permitting Mexico to degrade our children — I say, and surely Dick Nixon will say: 'Senators, your price is too dear to us!' He stabbed me with accusing eyes. 'If you aren't aware by now that this Nixon-Brown gubernatorial fight is as vital to the nation as it is to California, your typewriter should be confiscated.'"

"The Kennedys intend to blast down Nixon with blunderbuss Brown. They can't risk Nixon politically alive and ready for a return match in '64. Especially if —"

Editorially Speaking....

"The Time Has Come, The Walrus Said, To Talk of Many Things . . . of Shoes, and Ships and Sealing Wax . . . of Cabbages and Kings."

'Grab For Power'

The "grab for power" in the nation's Capitol threatens to alter our vitally important system of checks and balances. The foundation of our Republic is the Constitution. It has survived the test of time and been authoritatively accepted as the "greatest document struck off by the hand of man." Among the unique features of our American system of government are the checks and balances between the three branches of government: Legislative, Executive and Judicial. Also unique is that sovereignty is divided between the Federal and State governments. The Bill of Rights was added to the constitution to reserve certain powers to the people and to guarantee that government would not abridge freedom.

With the inauguration of the Kennedy Administration we have experienced a concerted and premeditated effort to withdraw some of the traditional powers from the other components of our system and give them to the Administration. This represents a threat, in our judgement, to our Republic and to its citizens. The Congress is not unaware, and some proposals have been turned back.

On one occasion, the Administration requested the Attorney General be empowered to investigate the files of any business in the nation without the necessity of obtaining a court order. Another instance was the request to allow the Secretary of Commerce to dictate the relocation of families displaced by highway construction on which federal funds were spent. This authority now rests with the states. In both cases the House voted against the Administration.

The President has requested that the Congress give him a BLANK check to spend $2 billion dollars on Public Works whenever he feels this would avert a recession. To grant such authority would give up the traditional power of the people's Representatives over their Nation's purse strings. He demands the authority personally to control the level of tariffs in this country. Adoption of the "Trade Expansion Act" would be a significant removal of Congressional power. He also demands authority to cut (or raise) taxes.

We have labeled this grandiose scheme the "grab for power." Its final resolution is still in doubt. To defeat many issues pending before Congress still require intense bipartisan support. The power and prestige of the President are at stake and we expect him to continue to push hard. The balance of power within our government, in our judgment, must never be compromised. The attempted "grab for power" therefore, must be repelled.

Concerning Tax Reduction!

Discussion of possible tax reduction — pro and con — goes on apace. But one important aspect of the matter seems to be largely neglected.

Taxes can be cut without any reduction in government spending, the result being more and larger deficits and, very likely, more inflation.

Or — government spending can be reduced wherever possible, the government commercial enterprises in competition with private citizens can be required to pay all the bills they incur, including the tax bills from which they are now exempt. Then taxes in general could be reduced with minimum danger to really essential governmental commitments and obligations.

Take, as just one example, the electric power business. It is a business in which government plants and systems, wholly or largely tax-free, account for about 20 per cent of the whole.

A private utility pays some 25 per cent of all its revenues in taxes, on the average. Suppose TVA, the REA co-ops, and all the other government facilities, were taxed on the same basis. Suppose, also, that they paid the going rate for capital, received no subsidies or special favors, and operated on the same basis as private enterprise in this field. Treasury receipts and balances would automatically rise in very noticeable amounts. And a long step toward lessening the tax load borne by business and individuals would be taken.

If there ever was a sound way to approach the tax problem, this is it.

Why do the tax spenders fight this eminently fair method of increasing tax receipts?

The Nation Is You

Senator Byrd of Virginia, who is probably the Senate's foremost expert on fiscal affairs, has contributed an article to Tax Review in which he underlines some basic is unpalatable truths.

The nation's fiscal position, he observes, characterized as it is "by debt, deficits, and threatening inflation," does not inspire confidence either at home or abroad. The continuing loss of our gold, he goes on, imperils our security "like an atomic bomb." Finally, he says that we must go to the root causes of this crisis before it is too late — and that those in authority must "act to restore confidence in the dollar. They can act most effectively and expeditiously by action to balance the domestic budget."

Senator Byrd is not an alarmist. He just knows a fact when he sees one, and speaks accordingly. In the long run, a nation which habitually outspends its income winds up in the same fix as a family or a business which outspends its income — broke and bankrupt. And remember, bankruptcy for the nation means bankruptcy for every citizen — the wiping out of savings, investments, insurance — everything.

'YOUR CITY AND MINE'

Preamble
This week and for the weeks to come, assuming the kind forebearance of the editor and the reading public, a weekly column will appear concerning the City of Sierra Madre. It will be written for the purpose of explaining, communicating and educating. While letters raising questions or offering constructive criticism are solicited, the identity of the writer of the letter will not be brought into play. Except as they would be of general interest, matters involving only single individuals will not be discussed. Send your letters to the Sierra Madre News or the City Hall so we can know what facets of your city you are interested in.

Sierra Madre has a Council-Administrator form of government. You will notice the more familiar term "City Manager Government" has not been used. In the opinion of the many persons interested in good government too much past emphasis has been placed on the important role of the City Council.

The City Council consists of five persons elected at large throughout the city for overlapping terms of four years. The only requirements to become a Councilman are that you be a registered voter, have lived in the city one year and get elected. There has never been a woman Councilman in Sierra Madre.

Additional elected offices in Sierra Madre are those of City Treasurer and City Clerk. All other positions such as Administrator, Attorney, Police Chief, etc. are appointed by the City Council. In addition, the City Council appoints the four permanent advisory boards: Planning Commission, Parks and Recreation Commission, Library Board and Parking District Commission, and temporary groups such as the Civil Defense Board, Senior Citizens Study Commission, and the Chairman of the Rose Float Association.

The members of the City Council serve as council liaison to these various permanent and temporary groups. Councilman Abernethy is at present the council representative to the Planning Commission; Councilman Parks to the Parks and Recreation Commission; and Councilman Sorensen to the Library Board, and both Councilmen Abernethy and Rule are members of the Senior Citizens Study Commission.

In addition to their duties within the City, members of the City Council serve as representatives of the City of Sierra Madre to outside groups. Some of the more important of these are the League of California Cities, a group organized to help orient city officials in their jobs and to represent the cities of California before the State Legislature; Sanitation District 15, which operates the sewage waste disposal facilities for this area; the San Gabriel Valley Municipal Water Dis-

The anti-submarine warfare support ship delivered over 52 tons of donated clothing, books, food and medicine to Japan, the Philippines and Hong Kong. The deliveries were part of the ship's support of "Operation Handclasp," a private program for destitute people in the Far East.

The Bennington participated in various anti-submarine warfare exercises with the Seventh Fleet.

Sleepy!

While I was waiting on the corner of Walk and Don't Walk the other evening, a whole host of motorcycle riders pulled up, unrolled their sleeping bags — spread them out in the middle of the busy boulevard and went to sleep. I could hardly believe my eyes. Oh well . . . reckon they were just sleepy — real sleepy at that.

The fifty-seventh Annual Iowa summer picnic will be held Saturday, Aug. 12, in the Recreation Park in Long Beach, Calif. Program starts at 11 a.m. with a picnic lunch at noon.

DEFEATED

Richard Dauben, who was sponsored by the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club in the 14-year-old division of the Kiwanis Tennis Tournament, was defeated in his second match July 24, it was reported by Emile Smith.

Guest Minister At Bethany

Bethany Church of Sierra Madre will have Rev. Max James, vice president of Japan Christian College, as guest minister for both services this coming Sunday, Aug. 12. Rev. James spoke at Bethany during the Month of Missions in May. He is now taking graduate work at Claremont in preparation for assuming duties in Tokyo in the near future. He is a fluent speaker and has a unique way of presenting the Word of God to a congregation. He will speak at the morning service at 11 o'clock and also at the evening service at 7 o'clock. The public is invited.

The Wednesday evening service will be led by the class. Filling in for Dr. Sky Aijian, president of the class, will be Mr. Fred Roberts of Cinema Consultants in Pasadena. The Voyager Class, made up of married couples between 30 and 40 years of age, is one of the outstanding Sunday School classes at Bethany Church. They will be bringing special music and a devotional message at the Prayer Meeting hour.

Several social activities have taken place in recent days at Bethany Church. The ninth grade Sunday School class, taught by Mr. Leon Johnson, went on a beach trip on Thursday, Aug. 2. The Upper Ten Club for high school and college young people was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Jones on the same day. Mr. Maurice Hanna brought the devotional.

The Seven Up Club for junior high students hosted the Redondo Chapel junior high young people on Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Marcelle Pollock were hosts. The Mariners Sunday School class, led by Mr. Runquist, travels to Newport for its annual beach party on Saturday, Aug. 11.

The Voyagers Sunday School class will have a beach trip on Aug. 18 in the same area.

Sabbath Services Temple David

Mr. Bernard L. Edelman of 620 Beverly Dr., Arcadia, will conduct the regular Friday evening service at Temple Beth David of the San Gabriel Valley on Aug. 10 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Charles Lich of 710 Encino Dr., Arcadia, will be at the organ.

Mrs. Louis Robin of 9441 E. La Rosa Dr., Temple City, will read the Invocation and recite the Blessing of the Lights. A member of the congregation will read the Kiddush (Sanctification Prayer).

Immediately following the service there will be an Oneg Shabbat with Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Robin of 9441 E. La Rosa Dr., Temple City, in honor of their anniversary, acting as hosts.

The Temple is affiliated with the Union of American Hebrew Congregations and is located at 9677 E. Longden Ave., at Kauffman, in Temple City.

Ask Questions, Make Comments After Services

A question and discussion hour following the Sunday service will be held at the Congregational Church for this and five succeeding Sundays, according to the pastor, the Rev. George W. Lindsay.

Mr. Lindsay will preach a series of sermons on "dialogue" on the rest of the Sundays in August, and through the first two Sundays in September. Then, following each service, there will be an opportunity for the congregation to ask questions or make comments. Thus, pew will talk to pulpit, as well as pulpit to pew.

The sermon topics announced for this series are as follows: Aug. 12: "Talking with God"; August 19, "Talking with Christ"; August 26: "Talking with the Church"; September 2: "Talking with the World"; and September 9: "Talking with Each Other."

Nebraska Guest Speaker At Faith Lutheran

The Rev. Werner von Kuhlberg of Howells, Nebraska, will be the guest speaker at the 8 and 10:30 Sunday morning worship services at Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Drive.

The Rev. Mr. von Kuhlberg is currently vacationing in Southern California, visiting at the homes of daughters, the Mmes. Marilyn Goetsch and Barbara Stone, both of whom are members of Faith Lutheran Church. He has chosen as his sermon subject, "Noah and the Deluge."

The Sunday School departments, meeting at 9:15, will study the Biblical account of "God's Gift of a Son to Abraham," another lesson in the Old Testament series.

The Choir will meet on Thursday evening at 8. According to Director Edg. Plischke, choral preparations are being made for the church dedicatory services, expected to take place sometime next month.

at Santa Anita Ave. and Foothill Blvd. in Arcadia in the fall.

Take your problems to Church this week — millions leave them there!

An old adage, indeed, that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

The "kids" on the farm are models of youthful efficiency. But they go a-fishin' whenever they can. The business men, the housewives, the schoolchildren — they need their fishin' too!

But there is another way in which the old adage is true: ALL WORKING and no PRAYING leaves man a dull soul!

The God who created us never intended us to be able to get along without Him.

Our hands may sow seed, but they can't make it grow. Our minds may work out problems, but they can't solve the world's chaos. All of our efficiency hasn't brought us lasting happiness or firm hope.

But when we turn to our Christian faith, and seek its power through regular worship in our Churches — then we find the things we need and want most!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Dear Editor:

I have just finished an article in your paper on our faithful public servants, the policemen, in the Aug. 2 issue.

I must say that the people of California should be proud of their law enforcement people. The standards and abilities of California's patrolmen is praised throughout our wonderful nation.

I did notice, however that no special mention was made of our Sierra Madre police force. Was this done with reasons derived from some sort of survey or investigation that some of the members of our police force are not worthy of our respect?

—CLIFFORD D. JANIS

Dear Editor:

New York Central's famous Twentieth Century Limited celebrated its 60th birthday. It has carried over six million passengers 62 million miles. Its motive power and equipment have been constantly improved. The service changed with time from exclusive extra fare to a variety of economy and first class accommodations. It operates "in the black" in spite of faster means of hopping between New York and Chicago.

Congratulations to a fine train; long may it offer relaxing travel to harried victims of motorized squirrel cage civilization. May it roll into year 2000 with title updated to an eternally affectionate "THE CENTURY!"

Very respectfully,
—K. FRITZ SCHUMACHER,
Former Santa Fe "Rail"

Blind Children To Attend Musical Events

Three hundred blind children for all parts of Los Angeles County—including approximately 40 from Sierra Madre and adjacent areas—have been invited to attend two outstanding musical events during the week of Aug. 12, announced Charles LaMoy, Braille Institute director of youth activities.

The two events are a Nat "King" Cole program at Green Theater on Sunday evening, Aug. 12, and a special Children's Concert at the Hollywood Bowl on Saturday morning, Aug. 18.

Enterlines Home After 2-Month C. A. Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Enterline of 512 N. Sunnyside in Sierra Madre have returned from a month-long tour of Central America.

The Enterlines saw many significant sights in Costa Rica, Honduras, El Salvador, Guatemala and Panama.

Mr. Enterline said that he visited a friend he met 20 years ago in Panama.

He also said that he saw the area where, 20 years ago, he worked on the Pan American Highway.

Arcadia County Park Improved

Schematic plans and specifications and a cost estimate of $163,232 for General Development Phase IV, at Arcadia County Park were approved this week by the County Board of Supervisors, according to Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli.

Bonelli said the Board authorized the County Engineer and the Director of Parks and Recreation to proceed with the preparation of final working drawings for the improvement after it held the initial plans and specifications were sufficiently advanced to constitute preliminary drawings.

Proposed is the construction of four tennis courts with fencing and concrete walks; off-street parking for 200 cars; park identification signs; night lighting for 12 tennis courts; security lighting; extension of walks, curbs and gutters; landscaping and sprinkler installation.

Funds for the preparation of the plans and specifications are provided in the current budget, Bonelli said.

Pomona Flood Work Funds Get Approval

County supervisors have authorized the County Flood Control District to deposit $697,000 with the Army Corps of Engineers to underwrite local costs for the proposed Federal improvement of Thompson and San Jose Creeks in Pomona, Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli disclosed today.

Sections of the washes to be improved include Thompson Creek from White Ave. to San Jose Creek and San Jose Creek from Thompson Creek to Nicholet St.

Edward Hergenrother of Arcadia has been appointed finance chairman for the eastern division of the Richard Nixon campaign. Hergenrother will assist H. C. "Chad" McClellan, Southern California chairman for the Republican gubernatorial nominee, in raising funds throughout the San Gabriel Valley.

are happy to have a two-week or three-week vacation, a most timely remark comes from Senator Mansfield, who reminded Congressmen and Senators who want to adjourn Congress right now, so they can go home and campaign for reelection, that they draw pay for serving 365 days a year. And he might well have added that more than half of them are paid more than they could earn in any other job.

we get a few more Cubas, Laoses, and intimidations of the so.b.s. who produced Hitler to suicide and now have Khrushchev thinking twice."

"You will concede then that Nixon would resign the governorship to accept the Republican nomination for President in 64?" The old man's booming retort almost started a rockslide. "What kind of an American could reject the call to battle of the party of Abraham Lincoln!"

General Electric has to pay back $7,400,000, merely because it nixed us taxpayers for a few millions through illegal price fixing combinations, and a lot of other noble business institutions may have to make similar settlements, for the same reason. After all, it's just as wrong for a great corporation to do such things as it is for Billie Sol Estes to do them, and proper punishment isn't really unfriendliness to business.

Other day I heard a prominent church member harshly criticized for betting on the horse races and had to smile at such narrowness.

Today Bill Henry is nationally noted as a columnist-commentator but I remember when he was sports editor of the Los Angeles Times, and some persons thought he shouldn't be because his father was a minister. At the same time Braven Dyer, Paul Lowry and another featured sports writer, all ministers' sons were on the same paper, and Paul's specialty was the selecting of the best bets of the day in horse racing. A lively interest in good, clean sport has been the making of many a young man.

CARROT TOP

told us that all the tickets for the Dodge-Sierra Madre Day game was completely sold out hours after the announcement in the News. Bravo! We hope the Sierra Madre Day at Santa Anita will be likewise, at least we will be whooping it up prior to the date.

—CT—

I was quite amused at a recent meeting of the City Council when City Administrator Larry Bevington announced to the Council that the new resurfacing job of Sunnyside was all completed, and a very excellent job. When some joker from the audience remarked, "Has the street department started digging holes in it yet?" This is no pipe dream, it does happen, occasionally before the re-surfacing material is 24-hours old.

—CT—

Here at the Sierra Madre News we often find it is difficult to please all our readers at the same time. It makes us feel more or less like the one rooster in a chicken coop . . . and this is a horrible feeling.

—CT—

Mistakes that are printed in the News are often discussed, and we do not blame the reader for discussing them, and become disgusted with us, but do you know making a mistake in printing is not easy . . . It takes four to five people handling the same story to really louse it up.

—CT—

Here is some statistics to show you just how hard it is to make a mistake . . . in last weeks paper, and most probably the issue you are now reading, there are twelve to fourteen pages of reading and advertising material, this constitutes approximately 2646 inches of reading material or 472,344 lines of type and each line of type has approximately five and one-third words for a total of 2,519,169 words per issue. Now the number of characters in the words and lines total up to 88 million one hundred seventy thousand, eight hundred and ten — 88,170,810 each week. This of course means that our writers must write that number of words and our linotype operators must punch that number of keys, our proof reader must read that many letters, and our make-up men must handle that number of lines, and the pressman must print them, before they come to you for your reading and consideration . . . so we make ten or fifteen errors per issue . . . we bow our heads in shame . . . there really isn't any good excuse for it, and we are trying hard to eliminate all of them . . . but the doctor buries his mistakes . . . ours go up as a sign board for everyone to see and comment about. We all make mistakes . . . and many of us could make a lot more, but trying and trying you are bound to get better, and this is our aim.

—CT—

In leaving you for this week I make the following statement: "perhaps we should recall Atlas. Perhaps he could better support the world better than we're doing" . . . see you around, I hope, I hope, I hope.

DOCTORS AND PHARMACISTS bring an invaluable ingredient to their professions. This ingredient is natural aptitude, which is reflected in your doctor's diagnosis and treatment, and in your pharmacist's skill. While money does buy many things—the necessary medical and pharmaceutical training, for instance—it can't buy natural aptitude. We say, "The next time your doctor prescribes, bring your prescription to us." This is because we put that invaluable ingredient into every prescription we fill.
